The Indispensable Quality of High Performing Organizations

The challenge of aligning a group of employees into a single organizational mission and vision can be overwhelming. To ensure optimal performance we need employees to operate seamlessly in collaborative ways, yet often employees are ill equipped to do so. This program will provide employees with an experiential learning process that will enable them to enjoyably learn critical team skills that can be applied upon return to their facility.

What will trainees learn?

- Aligning to a company vision, mission and goals
- Communicating effectively with teammates and leaders
- Working through everyday conflicts and differences
- Understand the basics of team problem solving

How will this training benefit your company and employees?

Teamwork is the ultimate form of operational culture leading to increased overall performance on all operational KPI's. This 8-hour course will equip your workforce and leadership with the tools necessary to nurture a team based environment. This training program will help participants to develop:

- A confident presence, with a can do can solve attitude
- An ability to navigate simple conflicts
- An ability to encourage each other in pursuit of operational goals.

You can expect employee performance to increase, relationships to improve and effective communication to increase as a direct result of this training.
