Class specifications are intended to present a descriptive list of the range of duties performed by employees in the class. Specifications are not intended to reflect all duties performed within the job; however, any additional duties will be reasonably related to this class.

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION

Under general direction, performs a variety of highly responsible, complex, and sensitive administrative and secretarial duties in support of the campus president; processes administrative details not requiring the immediate attention of the president including the coordination of functions, communication of policy, researching information, the preparation of reports, and other administrative tasks.

The executive administrative assistant classification provides responsible administrative support to the campus president. The duties of the executive administrative assistant involve a wide variety of diverse, complex, and sensitive/confidential administrative and secretarial tasks, requiring a substantial amount of tact, judgment, and initiative. The incumbent is required to be self-directed and to relieve the president of various administrative duties and may provide work direction and guidance to clerical personnel assigned to the area.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS

This is the highest level administrative support class assigned to the President's Office. Incumbents perform a variety of administrative and office coordination support work for the president. The work requires interpretation and application of complex policies, procedures, and regulations, extensive public contact, the frequent use of tact, discretion, and independent judgment, knowledge of district activities and the ability to conduct independent projects, as well as, perform various research and budgetary support functions. This class is distinguished from other office administrative classes in that the nature, scope, confidentiality, and diversity of responsibilities originating at a District-wide level require a broader understanding of district functions and the capability of relieving the president of day-to-day administrative and coordinative duties.
