NOTEWORTHY ACCOMPLISHMENTS/ACTIVITIES:

Be a Diverse, Equitable Inclusive, and Anti-Racist Institution (Club Rush)

Crafton's dedication to building a diverse and accepting campus was displayed at our annual Fall Club Rush, held on October 31st. Student organizations such as Pride Clup and M.E.Ch.A. Advertised their meetings and activities and signed up new members. Further, the annual costume contest attracted a record breaking 32 participants, who showed their school spirit through holiday cheer.

The Student Senate was happy to support these groups and their contributions to the Crafton community. ICC Coordinator Maya oversaw event logistics and ensured attendees had the best possible experience. Hundreds of students attended the event, eating over 450 free meals purchased by the Student Senate.

Be a Leader and Partner in Addressing Regional Issues (2024 Advocacy Academy)

To better address regional issues, External Affairs Director Barringer and Senate President Radillo petitioned to have all Region IX senate officers approved to attend the 2024 Advocacy Academy conference. These student leaders, elected by their peers, will learn to better represent their constituents through workshops, seminars, and networking with fellow representatives from across California.

By ensuring the attendance of the maximum number of officers from our local community colleges, Crafton senate leadership continues to pave the way for equitable policymaking. The ultimate goal of increased participation is to amplify voices from the Inland Empire and neighboring counties.

Ensure Fiscal Accountability/Stability (Appointment to DBAC)

On 11/8, the Crafton Student Senate voted to appoint Finance Director Van Stee to the District Budget Advisory Committee. Van Stee will provide insight and advisory input on behalf of the Crafton Hills College student body, ensuring that the voices of all roadrunners are heard, when making decisions regarding the SBCCD budget. Finance Director Van Stee recently reaffirmed her commitment to fiscal responsibility through the presentation of a CHC financial report, drawn from her meetings with Crafon administrators.
