INFORMATION TO INFORM POLICY:

ACTIONS and/or UPDATES RELATED TO GOALS:

1. Eliminate Barriers to Student Access and Success

The Crafton Hill's Student Senate is preparing for our upcoming Pre-Club Rush and Club Rush events, which will help students get involved, connect with campus life, and access valuable resources. These efforts strengthen engagement and foster a greater sense of belonging and inclusivity. ASG is also supporting a letter advocating for the continued availability of online and hybrid classes. Flexible learning options are vital for students balancing academics, work, and family, and we believe maintaining these formats is key to ensuring equitable access and success for all Roadrunners.

2. Be a Diverse, Equitable Inclusive, and Anti-Racist Institution

Crafton Hills College's Associated Student Government recently welcomed three new Senate members to its leadership team and approved the second draft of the Student Equity Plan. These actions reflect ASG's ongoing commitment to representation, inclusion, and meaningful progress toward equity on campus. By broadening participation in leadership and actively shaping policies that promote fairness and access, ASG ensures that diverse perspectives guide decision-making and that every Roadrunner feels seen, valued, and supported.

3. Be a Leader and Partner in Addressing Regional Issues

In preparation for the upcoming Advocacy Academy, Crafton Hills College student leaders are developing the knowledge and skills needed to engage with regional and local issues. This training empowers ASG members to effectively represent their peers and advocate for meaningful change beyond campus boundaries. By participating in this program, student leaders strengthen their ability to serve as informed, collaborative partners in addressing the needs of both the college and the wider community.
