INFORMATION TO INFORM POLICY:

ACTIONS and/or UPDATES RELATED TO GOALS:

1. Eliminate Barriers to Student Access and Success
  - a. The EOP&S Open House on February 10th welcomed students and families to learn more about the programs and support services that help many of our students succeed.
2. Be a Diverse, Equitable, Inclusive, and Anti-Racist Institution
  - a. Professor Chloe de los Reyes reported on the progress of the Multilingual ZTC Initiative, specifically the completion of our first ZTC Textbook: Foundations for Learning I: Multilingual Literacies Across Contexts. This textbook is the first of four; the group is wrapping up the second soon. This material will influence multilingual education for decades.
3. Be a Leader and Partner in Addressing Regional Issues
  - a. Academic Senate President Natalie Lopez will be attending the Academic Senate for the California Community Colleges Area D meeting that will take place this Friday. Resolutions presented that are in development statewide will be discussed in that space and will be agendaized for a future Academic Senate meeting, where the Senate will prioritize and make decisions on the voting that will take place at the Statewide Spring Academic Senate Plenary on Saturday, April 11.
  - b. Academic Senate President Natalie Lopez will be attending the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges Curriculum Regionals on Saturday, April 4. Topics will include newer initiatives such as the common course numbering project and emerging topics such as artificial intelligence in curriculum. This space will discuss, share updates, and help college teams consider how implementation can fit within existing local curriculum structures and processes.
4. Ensure Fiscal Accountability/Stability
  - a. Our Senate treasurer, Rick Hogrefe, recently updated the Academic Senate Funding Requests process to improve transparency and accountability. This new process was approved by the Senate membership.

NOTEWORTHY ACCOMPLISHMENTS/ACTIVITIES:

We want to acknowledge our campus for celebrating Black History Month, Lunar New Year, and Women's History Month, as we prepare for Gaypril next month.
