INFORMATION TO INFORM POLICY:

ACTIONS and/or UPDATES RELATED TO GOALS:

1. Eliminate Barriers to Student Access and Success
    a. At the Academic Senate's last meeting, faculty member Chloe de Los Reyes in collaboration with San Bernardino Valley College Academic Senate President Tatiana Vasquez who joined us for the meeting via Zoom to discuss their taskforce and the data gathered and work completed that was presented at the District AI Taskforce. Professor de Los Reyes proposed an Artificial Intelligence Taskforce, modeling San Bernardino Valley College's Academic Senate appointed Taskforce with the goal of developing a faculty survey in consultation with the Crafton Hills College Office of Research and Institutional Effectiveness to address the questions "How do our faculty's perspectives compare with those at Valley, particularly given the differences in our student populations, disciplines, and instructional practices?" "How can the campus leverage AI for operational efficiency without replacing the essential relational, human-to-human work of education?" The proposal passed for the formation of an AI taskforce at Crafton Hills College.

2. Be a Diverse, Equitable Inclusive, and Anti-Racist Institution
3. Be a Leader and Partner in Addressing Regional Issues
    a. Academic Senate President Natalie Lopez served as the delegate voter at the statewide Academic Senate plenary and voted on the resolutions on behalf of Crafton Hills College at the guidance of the Academic Senate. In our upcoming Academic Senate meeting, we will review the results of those resolutions.
    b. At the previous Academic Senate meeting, the Senate approved the proposed Bachelor of Science in Paramedicine that directly addresses regional workforce needs by responding to demonstrated employer demand for advanced education and professional development in emergency medical services (EMS) and public safety. Thank you, Associate Dean Amanda Ward.

4. Ensure Fiscal Accountability/Stability
